Inbetween

Maddi Jane

I need a little something more
I haven't seen you in so long
Where is my mind if not by your side
And darkness is at my door

1, 2, 3, I've gotta be where you are
1, 2, 3, I'm taken back to the start
Caught in the middle of a hazy cloud
Snatch me up 'cause I'm calling out
Snatch me up 'cause I'm calling out

You don't understand
I'm not alright
I'm not alright
Without something stepping in tonight
You don't understand
I'm not alright
I'm not alright without your love rescuing

Take me somewhere better, I wanna go
Don't care how I get there I'm going home
I will hitch hike highways
I'll swim the seas nothings in between
You and me
You and me

1, 2, 3, that's nothing but a memory
All that shit is but ancient history
Thoughts of suicide falling down
Laugh it off 'cause I stuck around
Laugh it off 'cause I stuck around
And I'm not turning back now

1, 2, 3, I'm taken back to the start
1, 2, 3, you offer me your heart
And I'm not turning back now
