

Numb

Maddi Jane

Your love and beauty like a goddess
Reaching for the bodies
I don't need to flaunt it
Just to make you want it
'Cause the woman never gonna be enough for you
Gave it my all but you hate the truth
If you turn it down again you're stupid
Some things just not computing
If you can't keep up I'm snoozing
I roll 'cause the boy not listening

Did you try? Did you try?
Tell me, did you really try, really try?
Was I a feeling that you wanted to follow?
Did you lie? Did you lie?
Now you're caught red-handed, you can't even cry
'Cause it's been so long that you no longer feel sorrow

Don't be numb, don't be numb
You can't love someone, can't love someone
When you're this numb, when you're numb
Boy, don't be numb, please don't be numb
Please don't be numb

Why you call me two weeks later asking for a favor boy?
My roommates don't want your car in our driveway, there's no wa y
Please don't Snapchat me from the tropics, happy and working al l shirtless
Like you didn't lie to me, lie to me, hey

Did you try? Did you try?
Tell me, did you really try, really try?
Was I a feeling that you wanted to follow?
Did you lie? Did you lie?
Now you're caught red-handed, you can't even cry
'Cause it's been so long that you no longer feel sorrow

Don't be numb, don't be numb
You can't love someone, can't love someone
When you're this numb, when you're numb
Boy, don't be numb, please don't be numb
Please don't be numb
