

Simple

Maddi Jane

Ahh... ahh...

Homie got a past and the homie let me in
Striving for redemption but I'm feeling like quitting
Black and white stripes dripping all over the linen
It's not a clean cut so I make no decisions

Lightning fast in the way that you act
And the thunder comes fast so I'm feeling like that Catching up to you when you run
Catching up like the moon and the sun

Too much healing that we need
Oh, I've got enough to do
I've got enough to do, ooh
Weakness isn't strength to you
You've got some learning to do
You've got some learning to do
I need something simple
So, so, so simple
I need something simple
So, so, so, so simple
(Uh...)

Wheels on the car gobbling up the gas
And you said you were a kid when you drove like that
At a hundred miles an hour, you want me to kiss you
I said, "fine but your eyes can't be closed too"

You try it just to get a reaction
Your confidence is a curse and a blessing, boy
What am I to do with you

Ooh, the way you make me feel
I can't contain it
I'll never be the same, babe
Since I knew your name
Boy, I can't explain it, oh

Too much healing that we need, oh
Oh, I've got enough to do
I've got enough to do, ooh
Weakness isn't strength to you
You've got some learning to do
You've got some learning to do
I need something simple
So, so, so simple
(I need something) I need something simple (I need something simple)
So, so, so, so simple (I need something simple)
Uh...
