

Lay Here with Me

Maddie & Tae

These walls could use some silence
These eyes could use some drying right about now
How can I be so lonely?
When I know you're always around
I can't take another sleeping on the couch night
Another stupid 'til the mornin' fight
Baby, I'm calling a truce

So lay here with me
Let down your guard
Let's take off our gloves
And quit making it so hard
'Cause you don't wanna go
And I don't want you to leave
So why don't you stay, please?
And lay here with me

I don't want us to be over
I miss when we were closer than air
My hand could use some holding
The bed is getting colder
I just want you to kiss me up those stairs

So lay here with me
Let down your guard
Let's take off our gloves
And quit making it so hard
'Cause you don't wanna go
And I don't want you to leave
So why don't you stay, please?
And lay here with me

Just the two of us
Holding on with the blinds shut
Hearts beating back in love
Maybe find what we lost if we just
Stay, stay, stay

Lay here with me
Let down your guard
Let's take off our gloves
And quit making it so hard
'Cause you don't wanna go
And I don't wanna leave
So why don't you stay, please?
And lay here with me
Lay here with me
Lay here with me

Lay here with me
