Write a Book

Maddie & Tae

Baby, when you say my name
It sparks up a flame
That I just can't seem to ignore
And baby, when you take my hand
I know you gotta plan
That's gonna keep me wanting more
Yeah, there's so many guys across the nation
Who could use a little lesson in flirtation
Little dedication, education
Baby, all I'm saying, all I'm saying is

You'd be on the New York Times bestseller list
How to make a woman dizzy with just a kiss
How to get the girl with just one look
Baby you could write a book
You could be an overnight bonafide millionaire
Just describing how you run your fingers through my hair
Just a simple touch and honey, I'm shook
You could write a book

Okay baby, I've changed my mind
Now that you're all mine
Yeah, I'll just keep you to myself
But baby, you've just got a way
The world would be a better place
With your tricks on a shelf, yeah, 'cause

You'd be on the New York Times bestseller list
How to make a woman dizzy with just a kiss
How to get the girl with just one look
Baby you could write a book
You could be an overnight bonafide millionaire
Just describing how you run your fingers through my hair
Just a simple touch and honey, I'm shook
You could write a book

Write a book, write a book, baby, you could write a
Yeah, you love me so good, baby, you could write a
Write a book, write a book, baby, you could write a book

Yeah, there's so many guys across the nation
Who could use a little lesson in flirtation
Little dedication, education
Baby, all I'm saying, all I'm saying is

You'd be on the New York Times bestseller list
How to make a woman dizzy with just a kiss
How to get the girl with just one look
Baby you could write a book
Yeah, You could be an overnight bonafide millionaire
Just describing how you run your fingers through my hair
Just a simple touch and honey, I'm shook
You could write a book

Write a book, write a book, baby, you could write a
Yeah, you love me so good, baby you could write a
Write a book, write a book, baby, you could write a book

Write a book, write a book, baby, you could write a
Yeah, you love me so good, baby, you could write a
Write a book write a book, baby, you could write a book
