Love

Look

Not worried bout things I really can't control
Like if you feel away just let your feelings roll
Don't hold that shit back sometimes you gotta let em know
I believe in you and nobody else do getting it whole
Who want it? Nobody wanna really see you stuck
You hear me if you need hit my line I'll be your luck
Remember summer time playin' unreleased in your truck
Show you love her and you really give a fuck
Gotta find the pieces to the puzzle when it's tough

Ain't no hunny like a piece make it sweet as your love Gotta find the pieces to the puzzle when it's tough (Now that's love<)

Ain't no hunny like a piece make it sweet as your love

They say you can be great when you get older
I told my son fuck that be colder
Told my son he can be anything like right now
I think that's a mistake people really make Putting time limit on when you can be great
I got God, I got faith move out my way
I ain't perfect but I'm going the right way
I might act funny but I ain't a crash dummy
Gotta find the pieces to the puzzle when it's tough

Ain't no hunny like a piece make it sweet as your love Gotta find the pieces to the puzzle when it's tough (Now that's love<)

Ain't no hunny like a piece make it sweet as your love (Uh)
Now that's love
There's a lot of things we say we will or won't do
