Seen the first hundred had to keep going
Twenty thousand in my mouth, reason why my teeth showing
Niggas traders told 'em move around, I grabbed the leaf blower
Said that she in love with me but I know that the streets calling
I'm just saying, born to be a savage, that's what the streets taught me
Know I'm getting older, same reason why I'ma keep balling
Never crack the code, you know I got it like I'm Leonardo
Yeah, I grew up rough, they all wondering why he is hard
Bitch is gay, got her leg wrapped 'round her like a leotard
They like, what is wrong with me? Think I had a change of heart
They all stabbed me in the back, thought it would rip me apart
My revenge, I pull up today, you will not see tomorrow
