

(I love MadeinTokyo)

You broke my heart, to save yours
But you still, want more
I don't really understand, no
I've killed some, blessed some
Want, to get closer, now you don't wanna know when it's all over
Yeah you don't wanna know

Uh, you had to save yours, I had to pay for it
What don't kill you make you hard I'm made for it
Life change when you a father there's place for it
You need patience mixed with greatness yea I'm there for it
I ain't really trying to see you busy living
I was in the studio you busy chilling
Laying on my ass nah, I don't know the feeling
Somebody open up the top, my thoughts to the ceiling
I told her if she ever leave I'm walking out the building
I told she lay with me we gonna have some children
On god, thanks for the wedding but want the feeling
Example if it don't work out you work it out
The one's thats going through it know what I'm talking bout (ooo)

You broke my heart, to save yours
But you still, want more
I don't really understand, no
I've killed some, blessed some
Want, to get closer, now you don't wanna know when it's all over
Yeah you don't wanna know

24, Tokyo, look
I wonder if heaven got a studio
I wonder if my kids will be beautiful
All this weed that I smoke but only you in those Yokohama, Cherry Blossoms, Rick Owens Fit on
I put dirt inside your grave, I'm like what the fuck
I can't gucci know you saw me I was drunk as fuck
I got angels all around me so I'm blessed for real
You got keep it to yourself you can't tell them what you finna do
Woulda much rather you slide on me, instead of what you did to me

You broke my heart, to save yours
But you still, want more
I don't really understand, no
I've killed some, blessed some
Want, to get closer, now you don't wanna know when it's all over
Yeah you don't wanna know

I moved on she thought my love was endless
Infinty off the moon they won't admit this
She want to jam to my songs they like who is this?
Infinity off the strooms strum ridiculous
I'm in malibu I couldn't deal with attitude
And she too stressed bout the day won't matter too
Sometimes it don't work out incompatible
Don't know what thats all about I ain't mad at you

You broke my heart, to save yours
But still, want more
I don't really understand, no
I've killed some, blessed some
Want, to get closer, you don't wanna know when it's all over
Yeah you don't wanna know
