Me so reckless and she's so restless
But she so precious, she don't need stressing
Riding down Gresham, I'm speeding in the Lexus
You feel special, made me your selection
Might've been one night, but made me your collection
You tried to lead me on like I need some direction
I need your essence, but these are the lessons
My pockets filled with presidents, like cheat the election
I'll probably lose my evidence, I ain't seen or met you
If you see me in public, don't say nothin', I'll text ya
I can take you across the water like I came to the rescue
Just keep it real with me, ain't gotta do nothing extra

And I just wanna see sum
Baby, come here, I'm just tryna see sum
Girl, can you come here, I'm just tryna see sum
Baby, can you come here, I'm tryna see sum
Baby, can you come here, I'm tryna see sum
Baby, can you come here, I'm tryna see sum
Oh, that was your man, I ain't tryna be him
Oh, you got a man, you gotta leave him

Uh

You think she faithful but she sliding in my DM
I be low-key out the way, I don't really see 'em
Manifested my position, now they wanna be him
She know that I'm a boss and it's evident
We gotta long list of niggas that I'm just better than
We went independent, linked up, and got some cheddar then
I'm into making money more than making friends
And now I'm in a Tesla, boy, I used to have a Benz
She know my songs, and yeah, she got 'em on replay
You know the real ones, she probably know where I stay
I was out in Tokyo whilesippin' on Sake
I was running up them stairs, I felt like Rocky Chanel frame shawty, yeah, can I see some?
When you in the store tell me if you see sum (Nah for real)
I ain't need you to tell me I was gon' be sum

And I just wanna see sum
Baby, come here, I'm just tryna see sum
Girl, can you come here, I'm just tryna see sum
Baby, can you come here, I'm tryna see sum
Baby, can you come here, I'm tryna see sum
Baby, can you come here, I'm tryna see sum
Oh, that was your man, I ain't tryna be him
