Error

Madeline Juno

So naked, I'm walking to find what's left of me
The mirrors, throw shadows across my destiny
Nothing's right, here tonight, all the angels left me
The lullabies, turned to lies, believe me

No, you don't wanna know this kind of love
No, you don't wanna know this kind of love
And you don't wanna know the night you realize

The error (error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love

Somebody, come to me, somebody hold my hand
I'm down here, I'm broken, I try to understand
That nothing's right, here tonight, all the angels left me
I try to find a little light to guide me

No, you don't wanna know this kind of love
No, you don't wanna know this kind of love
And you don't wanna know the night you realize

The error (error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love

All the the tears, all the smiles that we'd never share
And I know, I said, "No I can take you there"
Tell me why, tell me why I see everywhere, everywhere

(The error, error, error) between you and I
(Error, error, error) here tonight
(Error, error, error) we're not alive
(Error, error, error)

(Error, error, error) between you and I
(Error, error, error) here tonight
(Error, error, error) tell me why (error, error, error)
Tell me why nothing feels alright

The error (error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love
(Error, error, error) in this kind of love
