

Hindsight

Madeline Juno

You said my shirt looks best when I'm not even wearing it
That Aerosmith, so now you understand it
The second our hands intertwined
I knew I wasn't gonna find a better peace of mind
You've left a love bite on my neck, it's like you're writing
Poems onto my skin, don't wanna hide them
The second you kissed me goodbye
I knew I wasn't gonna find sleep without you tonight

But when I close my eyes, your lips are still on mine
How come I only realize in hindsight?
I should've said these 3 words before you caught your flight
Until we meet again, I will be seeing us in hindsight, ooh
(In hindsight) Ooh whoa

I see your skin feels best on mine, keeping me warm
You give me shivers down my spine though you got me wrapped up
The night we stayed up until dawn
I knew I wasn't gonna feel home anywhere but here
I hid a note beneath your sheets just to remind you
My heart is yours to keep, you couldn't even break it
The moment you tear it apart
I'll know I wasn't gonna love anyone like I loved you

But when I close my eyes, your lips are still on mine
How come I only realize in hindsight?
I should've said these 3 words before you caught your flight
Until we meet again, I will be seeing us in hindsight, ooh
(In hindsight) Ooh whoa
I should've said these 3 words before you caught your flight
Until we meet again, I will be seeing us in hindsight

I'm tired of counting sleeps 'cause lately, I can't Seem to close my eyes at all at night
Been thinking of ways to tell you
I've seen it all in hindsight, ooh whoa

And when I close my eyes, your lips are still on mine
How come I only realize in hindsight?
I should've said these 3 words before you caught your flight
Until we meet again, I will be seeing us in hindsight, ooh
(In hindsight) Ooh whoa
I should've said these 3 words before you caught your flight
Until we meet again, I will be seeing us in hindsight
