

Into the Night

Madeline Juno

Fingerprints on my skin
Constellations that begin where we touched
The sky is crying, so am I
'Cause your love is running dry, it just won't stop

Heavy heart growing cold
And it's sinking like a stone bound to drown
Guess you're not coming back
'Cause you covered all your tracks without a sound

I know I won't follow you this time
I have to go alone

Into the night, into the night
I'll be chasing whatever's left
Of the rest of my life
Into the night

Learn to walk on my own
Look towards the unknown, souls are lost
A complete disconnect
'Cause no streets are leading back to where our paths crossed

I know I won't follow you this time
I have to go alone

Into the night, into the night
Of the rest of my life
Into the night
