

Like Lovers Do

Madeline Juno

Show yourself to me
Are you somebody to love?
Or tell me are you
A myth I created now?
Maybe I'm out of my mind again
And I might be naive
Maybe I'm in over my head again
But I saw you in my sleep

I've died everyday trying to find someone like you
I've died everyday trying to bind the wounds
My lover left last time

And I die to know if you
Die to know if I
Die to hold you like lovers do
And I do

Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, ooohhh (like lovers do)
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, ooohhh

I breathe you in
And fill my lungs with cigarette smoke and oxygen
Beneath your skin I've seen demons
Like I've seen them under mine
And you see through me
And you read me
Like a Charles Bukowski book
And I can't help myself but fall for your eyes

I've died everyday trying to find someone like you
I've died everyday trying to bind the wounds
My lover left last time

And I die to know if you
Die to know if I
Die to hold you like lovers do
And I do

Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, ooohhh (and I do)
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, ooohhh (like lovers do)

Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, ooohhh (like lovers do)
Oh oh, oh oh (and I do)
Oh oh, ooohhh

And I die to know if you
Die to know if I
Die to hold you like lovers do
