

Six Cigarettes

Madeline Juno

I'm gonna pick up every word you said, oh darling
They, they keep running through my head
Ever since we met, oh, I'll admit
I guess I'm falling over you

And I know you said you barely know me
But I'm willing to give it a try
And I know the distance is daring
But soon enough I'll know how to drive

We could sit and talk and laugh for hours and hours
And just forget the time passing by
Six cigarettes in a package of eighteen
Said it will just be enough for tonight

You're a train wreck but I wouldn't mind
You live like they say all the bad boys do
You're a rebel and out of my league
And I'm hopelessly praying you'll sing along to this song

You're that kind of reckless with no lesson learned
And I know she broke your heart, but you can have mine
To keep and I'll
Be your guardian right from the start

And you showed me what I couldn't find
Just by looking into your big brown eyes
You said you got from your mother
And her lips, you got them, too

You're a train wreck but I wouldn't mind
You live like they say all the bad boys do
You're a rebel and out of my league
And I'm hopelessly praying you'll sing along to this song

Said you hated moving in circles
Falling asleep alone in your bed
One cigarette in a package of eighteen
Said it gets harder to breathe

You're a train wreck but I wouldn't mind
You live like they say all the bad boys do
You're a rebel and out of my league
And I'm hopelessly lying awake tonight
