

Be Fine

Madeon

Today the world is gonna me do right
The sun is rising in my head
Until I just cannot believe my eyes
And you tell me it's another phase
Does it matter if it's real or not?
I don't think I'll ever have enough
Make it so the fire doesn't stop
Are you listening to me?

Don't tell me that I might
I will be fine again
Tell me that I might
I will be fine again
Tell me that I might
I will be fine
Let my body do me right
I say
I will be fine

Can I make this my home?
I'm still coming into my own
"You can't keep falling into my arms"

"You can't keep falling into my arms"
But you'll be there in all that I do
When it's time to do what I do
But still I feel for you
Say are you listening to me?

Don't tell me that I might
I will be fine again
Tell me that I might
I will be fine again
Tell me that I might
I will be fine
Let my body do me right
I will be fine

Don't let me down
I'm up again
I'm safer in sound
I got away
If I fall to the ground
I'll come again
I'll stay awake for a lifetime
Awake for a lifetime

I will be fine
