

Feel Something

Madi Diaz

I wanna be somewhere I can walk home from Stoned and alone and half laughing at how little I can live on
I used to think I needed to read your mind I'm only gonna find what I'm gonna find and then we'll fuck and then we'll fight
I don't need, I don't need, I don't need anything anymore

You can call me if you feel something
If you want me to make you feel something
If so how, if not why, if I can't
Why can't I feel something

I wanna be someone who doesn't know your middle name Eyes in the back of my head, breath sucked back up into my lung s again
I used to think that every word you said was a little gift
That I'd unwrap and then start dreaming about the next one I mi ght get
I don't get, I don't get, I don't get anything anymore

You can call me if you feel something
If you want me to make you feel something
If so how, if not why, if I can't
Why can't I feel

You can call me if you feel something
If you want me to make you feel something
If so how, if not why, if I can't
Why can't I do this right just one time
Fuck my life, god damn it I might feel something
I might feel
I might feel something
I might feel something
I might feel something...
