

Hate You More

Madilyn Bailey

I hate the way, you, go back and fourth, slamming doors, making off the last time
I hate the way, you, shove me off, let me down, you come around for the good times
I hate the way, you, oh, I hate the way
I stay up all night, say I'm just fine, I don't know why
I hate you more than you could
Yeah it feels right, leaving goodbye, I don't know why
I hate you more than you could
(I hate you more than you could)

I hate the way, I, couldn't resist, every kiss, lying in the be d with me
I hate the way, I, compromise that you fed me lies, all the tim es I never wonder why
I hate the way, I, oh, I hate the way

I stay up all night, say I'm just fine, I don't know why
I hate you more than you could
Yeah it feels right, leaving goodbye, I don't know why
I hate you more than you could

Memories come crushing in like a good thing
Yeah all day I'm waking up to a bad dream
Memories come crushing in like a good thing
It's a good thing, but it's a bad dream
I hate the way, I, oh, I hate way
I hate the way

I stay up all night, say I'm just fine, I don't know why
I hate you more than you could
Yeah it feels right, leaving goodbye, I don't know why
I hate you more than you could
Stay up all night, say I'm just fine, I don't know why
I hate you more than you could
Yeah it feels right, leaving goodbye, I don't know why
I hate you more than you could
I hate you more, hate you more, hate you more
I hate you more, I hate you more than you could
I hate you more, hate you more, hate you more
I hate you more, I hate you more than you could
