I want to take you to Rome
Throw a coin in a fountain
I want to dance with your hand in my hand
Through streets of Barcelona
Wanna get wasted with you
In a pub down in Dublin
Pick a place on a map
'Cause it don't really matter to me where we're going

Lights are running
Like a river
The current takes us where it wants to go
Walk the city
While it's sleeping
And I agree it's pretty beautiful

You said, what a view
I said, I think so too
You were looking at the sky, the lights, but I
I was looking, looking, looking
I was looking at you
'Cause baby, you're a view
You were looking at the sky, the lights, but I
I was looking, looking, looking
I was looking at you, you, you
I was looking at you, you, you
'Cause baby, you're a view, view, view
I was looking, looking, looking
I was looking at you

We learned how to fly
Over rooftops of Amsterdam
And I don't know why
But the wine just tastes better in France

Lights are running
Like the river
The current takes us where it wants to go
Walk the city
While it's sleeping
And I agree it's pretty beautiful

You said, what a view
I said, I think so too
You were looking at the sky, the lights, but I
I was looking, looking, looking
I was looking at you
'Cause baby, you're a view
You were looking at the sky, the lights, but I
I was looking, looking, looking
I was looking at you, you, you
I was looking at you, you, you
'Cause baby, you're a view, view, view
I was looking, looking, looking
I was looking at you, you, you
I was looking at you, you, you
'Cause baby, you're a view, view, view

I was looking, looking, looking
I was looking at you
