

Make Me Burn

Madilyn Mei

You can paint over me but I'm still here
Make me burn but you'll learn that it only ignites
But I, I'll be alright this time

You can damp in the day but I'll fix it
You can lead me away to the edge of the line
Where the dark meets the lights
But I'll be alright this time

Cause pain makes people change in so many ways

I'm crazy enough to be interesting
And I'm already broken
What more can you do
And I'll have to thank you
Broken means the light can finally shine through

If you send me a storm or plant flowers
Maybe even my heart so that it can regrow
As slowly as you broke it in the first place
So let the rain flow

And time is always saying that time is quickly fading
So you won't see me wasting it on you

Make me burn but you'll learn that I don't feel
Cause I'm made of stardust although I don't shine
And I'm not gonna give you my thoughts
Cause I'll be alright this time
Yes, I'll be alright this time
