bad enough

Madison Beer

Taken but it's holding me back
And I feel kind of bad about that
But I don't wanna be alone
No, I don't wanna be alone (Be alone)
I'm slipping into habits so bad
And if you take a look at my past
I don't know how to be alone
I don't know how to be alone (Be alone)

I know that it seems easy
That I like that he needs me
My friends all say my standards are too low
But it's not bad enough to let my baby go

Go, go, go
It's not bad enough to let my baby go
Go, go, go
It's not bad enough to let him go

I know that I talk a big game
But nothing ever changes its way
These days, these days (These days)
He says that I seem so sad (Mm, sad)
And what am I supposed to say to that? (Ooh)
When I don't wanna tell a lie (Mm)
No, I don't wanna tell him why, why (Ooh)

He's not making it easy
I know he'll never leave me
My friends say things I already know
But it's not bad enough to let my baby go

Go, go, go
It's not bad enough to let my baby go
Go, go, go
It's not bad enough to let him go

I wish I didn't complicate it (Ooh-ooh)
I wish I didn't have to say it (Ooh-ooh)
I wish I didn't have to hate him
I'd walk away, and I would be okay
I'm sorry that I let you kiss me (Ooh-ooh)
I'm sorry that I dragged you down with me
And now we're at the bottom and we both know (Ooh-ooh)
That I don't wanna let my baby go

Go, go, go
It's not bad enough to let my baby go
Go, go, go
It's not bad enough to let him go
