Madison Beer

Ah, ah-ah, ah-ah, ah-ah
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah, ah-ah

Did you miss me? I like to pretend you did
Was crying lately, I know you can picture it
All our memories safe in my locket, I carry it
I know I missed you, I'm not gonna lie 'bout that I had to leave you be and see how I felt 'bout that
If you don't hear from me, it don't mean I loved you less
Had to get this off my chest

I've been searching but the answer's right in front of me (Of me)
My protection's so divine and now I see (I see)
Pain on a necklace, set it down, I'm weightless
Everything that I could ever need is within me
