Am I talking to the wind
Are you really listening
Like an empty room, all the walls are caving in
I've been searching through the night
Need your hand to hold me tight
Cause I've been on my own
Would you make it right

Help, me to see your hand
Even when, I don't understand
Wanna trust in a bigger plan
I know that a blessing is on me
Been feeling afraid of it all
If I take the first step and I fall
Will you be there beside me, I need you to guide me
With patience I'm learning to crawl

Need to

Where do I begin
I've been looking deep within
Deep within my soul
Found a treasure I could give
You know the way the story goes
All that sparkles isn't gold
And it's hard to live a lie
If the truth is what I know

Help, me to see your hand
Even when, I don't understand
Wanna trust in a bigger plan
I know that a blessing is on me
Been feeling afraid of it all
If I take the first step and I fall
Will you be there beside me, I need you to guide me
With patience I'm learning to crawl
