

I Know

Madison Ryann Ward

When I'm turned around
When I'm upside down
You help me find my feet and place me right back on the ground
Though it's hard to see
Beyond everything
It's taking away my peace
You're the one who gives it back to me

Even when the night gets cold
Even when I feel alone

I know, I know
There ain't a road that I will ever walk alone
I know, I know
I know, I know
There ain't a place that I could be that You won't go
I know, I know

All my days of doubt
When I'm down and out
When everything's testing me, just fighting on a losing battle ground
Moments from defeat
Before I call retreat
I remember You said to me that You've already won the victory

So even when the night gets cold
Even when I feel alone

I know, I know
There ain't a road that I will ever walk alone
I know, I know
I know, I know
There ain't a place that I could be that You won't go
I know, I know
I know, I know
There ain't no road that I will ever walk alone
I know, I know
I know, I know
There ain't a place that I could be that You won't go
Go, go

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know (I know, I know)
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know (There ain't a place that I could be that You won't go)
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know (I know, I know)
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
