

Mirror

Madison Ryann Ward

You took my heart
And gave it a home
We made it through the aching parts
And I gave you my soul
Oh we tried to kill the pain
And heal these scars
But now love has had its say
And we're moving apart

Well we're chasing time
Gotta find peace of mind
And understand that
Baby we never can

Keep me in your mirror
But don't take your eyes off the road
Holding on won't get us any nearer
Cause we got a long way to go
Sometimes it's hard to see
That some things just won't be

Now we both know
But we act so unaware
It just goes to show
Our love isn't fair
Tomorrow's never promised
Only yesterday's a guarantee
And if I'm being honest (yeah baby)
That's the only thing that carries me

Now we're out of time
We gotta find peace of mind
And understand that
Maybe we never can

So keep me in your mirror
But don't take your eyes off the road
Holding on won't get us any nearer
Cause we got a long way to go
That some things just won't be
