

Can't Touch Us Now

Madness

How can you refuse?
Half my kingdom I offer you
And in return
All that I ask is you walk with me
Don't turn away
All my deepest kept secrets
I'll share with you

No you can't touch us now
Not now we're in to deep

Ah, look at us now, head over heels
Tumbling in each other's stubborn foolishness
And our Lords can have tomorrow, but
But for today we'll be with each other
Down by the stream.

No you can't touch us now
Not now we're in to deep
We have all the treasures that we need

Oh no no no you can't touch us now

Just look at us now
Just two condemned lovers
Torn from the big book and thrown to the tower
And don't denounce your beliefs
No matter what wool they try to pull
I'll always believe

That you can't touch us now
Not now we're in to deep
We have all the treasures that we need

Oh no no no you can't touch us now

That you can't touch us now
Not now we're in to deep
And all the treasures that we need

No you can't touch us now
We're in to deep
