

Amy

Mads Langer

I'm looking up, theres a ray on sun
In the corner of, my mind
I used to be on the
On bathing in your sun
Baking hard is all I ever known
With you it felt a little more like home

When I heard the news
I was at your door, I was just to late
To late for you,
When you said goodbuy
Didn't hurt at all, I would take the bullet
And break the fall for you if I could
I would take the bullet
I would break the fall for you if I could

I'm looking down searching for your shadow
In the corner of Barry Street
I used to be full of all the matters
Now they empty land, my heart beat
Baking hard is all I ever known
With you it felt a little more like home

When I heard the news
I was at your door, I was just to late
To late for you,
When you said goodbuy
Didn't hurt at all, I would take the bullet
And break the fall for you if I could

When I heard the news
I was at your door, I was just to late
To late for you
So when you said goodbuy
It didn't hurt at all
So when I...

Take the bullet
Break the fall for you if I could

I would take the bullet
Break the fall for you if I could

I would take the bullet
Break the fall for you if I could

I would take the bullet
Break the fall for you if I could
You would put on the reck, fell through the cracks back to black