Deep Sleep

Mads Langer

Damn, while I was still sleeping
Cause most of my dreaming is still in my head

I was ready to seal it, so close I could feel it but I woke up instead

It's too late for me, can't go back to sleep
you really got me dream stalking

I'll try a remedy
a new stragedy?
Or maybe practically forking

'Cause I ain't leaving my bed
I don't want to wake up already
No, I ain't leaving my bed
I don't want to wake up already
Cause I'm gonna fall in deeper

Deep sleep
Deep sleep

Blam, who's knocking on my door?
Down it's so hard that it is hurting my head

No, don't bother calling
I won't pick up the phone
'Cause I'm going straight back to bed

And it's too late for me
I can't go back to sleep
It's really got me dream stalking
I don't know why you bothered me,
When it's so early
You'll only catch me dream stalking

'Cause I ain't leaving my bed
I don't wanna wake up already
I ain't leaving my bed
I don't wanna wake up already!
No, I ain't leaving my bed
I don't wanna wake up already

'Cause I'm gonna fall in deeper
I'm gonna fall in deeper
