

Unusual

Mads Langer

I love a girl, she's dangerous
Yeah, mysterious
Oh, she sex it up
When she walks into the room
I love a girl, she's a wonderland
Yeah, I'm in her command
Oh, I'm a lucky man
And I'm higher than the moon 'cause

She's my education
Beyond my fascination
She's a revelation
And I tell her, tell her

You're an unusual, kinda beautiful
Yep, you're different in a perfect way
An unusual, kinda beautiful
And you know that I appreciate
The way you're working your game
You got your own kind of thing
The way you're moving puts a smile on my face
Oh, an unusual, kinda beautiful
Yep, you're different in a perfect way

I love the curve of her silhouette
Yeah, and the way she dress
Uh, she's a goddess
She's not like any other
Girl I ever met
Mmh, and the way we kiss
Uh, our bodies fit
I never want another

She's my education
Beyond my fascination
She's a revelation
And I tell her, tell her, tell her

You're an unusual, kinda beautiful
Yep, you're different in a perfect way
An unusual, kinda beautiful
And you know that I appreciate
The way you're working your game
You got your own kind of thing
The way you're moving puts a smile on my face
Oh, an unusual, kinda beautiful
Yep, you're different in a perfect way

You open up my eyes, you're changing me
And I realize
Beauty's so much more than what you see

You're an unusual, kinda beautiful
Oh, you're different in perfect way
An unusual, kinda beautiful
Oh, and you know that I appreciate
The way you're working your game

You got your own kind of thing
The way you're moving puts a smile on my face
An unusual, kinda beautiful
Yep, you're different in a perfect way, yeah
Oh, you're different in a perfect way
An unusual, kinda beautiful, oh
You're different in a perfect way, yeah
