

Jenny

Mae Muller

The twelfth of July was the day
That you and I had our first date
We smiled, we laughed, we drank, we ate
Little did I know that you
Had me competing in a race
With other girls watching this space
Jenny, Rosie, Olivia and Kate
(I'd rather be with Jenny)

You think you're sitting pretty getting your kicks
You want your ego to be stroked and have your arse licked
Sorry to let you down I'm not that stupid
(No, no, no, no, no)

You think you're sitting pretty having your fun
I met your girl the the other day we got our nails done
And she was telling me that you can't make her
You never make her
(No, no, no)

And now you wanna see
Where things will go with me
Oh no baby I'd rather be Jenny
(And now you're on your own)
Cause I just can't believe
How you tried to deceive me
Baby, I'd rather be with Jenny

You tripped over your lie
And now your stuttering, mumbling
'Oh no baby please why'
But your eyes can't hide from me

Thought you could just sit pretty getting your kicks
And pull the wool over our eyes and think with your dick
Sorry to let you down we're not that stupid
We're not that stupid

You think you're sitting pretty having your fun
I met your girl the other day we got our nails done
And she was telling me that you can't make her
You never make her
(No, no, no)

And now you wanna see
Where things will go with me
Oh no baby I'd rather be Jenny
(And now you're on your own)
Cause I just can't believe
How you tried to deceive me
Baby, I'd rather be with Jenny
(Oh, no, no, no, no)

And now you wanna see
Where things will go with me
Oh no baby I'd rather be Jenny
(And now you're on your own)

Cause I just can't believe
How you tried to deceive me
Baby, I'd rather be with Jenny

I'd rather be with
Be with, be with, be with Jenny
Be with Jenny, ooh
(And now you're on your own)
