

Little Bit Sad

Mae Muller

I said the things you're meant to say
Like "We'll stay friends", and that "I'm happy for you, babe"
Congratulations on your new job, by the way
You're looking well, and your new girlfriend, she seems great

It isn't so bad
Isn't so bad
Tell my friends, "This is the most fun I've ever had"
I'll make out that I'm glad
So glad, so glad
But deep down, I wish you were a little bit, a little bit sad

Mmm-oh
Deep down, I wish you were a little bit, a little bit sad
Does that make me bad?
That deep down, I wish you were a little bit, a little bit sad

I wonder do you think of us?
Ah, when I first saw you, you were waiting for the bus
Who would have thought that we'd end up falling in love
We went from "You're the one" to saying, "Keep in touch", oh

You don't give a damn
You do not even give a damn
I see you moving on, and it's out of my hands
I'll make out that I'm glad
But deep down, I wish you were little bit, little bit sad

Uh, oh
Deep down, I wish you were little bit, a little bit sad
Does that make me bad?
Just a bit
That deep down, I wish you were a little bit, a little bit sad

Can't go to Primrose Hill 'cause you can't go without me
Can't watch "The Office" 'cause it makes you think about me
Can't go to parties 'cause it hurts to be around me
Deep down, I wish you were a little bit, a little bit sad
Yeah, deep down, I wish you were a little bit, a little bit sad
Deep down, I wish you were a little bit, a little bit sad

Just a ton, I wish you were a little bit, a little bit sad
