

Maybe

Mae Muller

In this whirlwind that I'm in
I can forget where I've been
But I know it feels like home
When you're around

Come a little closer, pull me in
Need you to hold me, forgive my sins
I'm just a lady who needs lovin'
Lovin'

But you know I can't stay

Baby I put on a front but I'm cravin'
Your touch and your love, hate to say it
My pride's giving up so just take... it
Lately I've been runnin' out of maybe's
Guess I was too scared to face it
My pride's had enough so just take... me

I've been here before
I was pacing outside your door
Hoping to tell you I wanted more
But I didn't
No I couldn't

But I thought
I'd try again
So I really hope that you're in
Maybe I've worn you too thin
It's the closest I've ever been

To sayin'
I put on a front but I'm cravin'
Your touch and your love, hate to say it
My pride's giving up so just take... it
Lately I've been runnin' out of maybe's
Guess I was too scared to face it
My pride's had enough so just take it

Take, take, take it

But I wish I could stay

I hope I'm not too late
Cause baby
I put on a front but I'm cravin'
Your touch and your love' hate to say it
My pride's giving up so just take... it
Lately I've been runnin' out of maybe's
Guess I was too scared to face it
My pride's had enough so just take me

Take me

Take, take it
