

Pull Up

Mae Muller

Best friend
Yeah, you used to be my best friend
We used to kick it 'til the morning
And hold hands
But that was then

Now you, you ain't mine
You can go and live your life
Or run and hide
It ain't gonna change my mind
A thousand times, I said it before

Don't come around me, come around me
Acting funny
So now you want me, now you want me
I'm not about it
This tough love you fucked up, no doubt about it

So pull up, pull up
I know you're trying to pull the trigger on our love
I see you creeping and I'm fed up, fed up
You made a fool out of me
So pull up, pull up
I know you're trying to pull the trigger on our love
Good luck finding someone better, better, better than me

Big plans, big plans
Me and you we had big plans
But some things aren't meant to be
And I can't go back, back again

Don't come around me, come around me
Acting funny
So now you want me, now you want me
I'm not about it
This tough love you fucked up, no doubt about it

Don't come around me, come around me
Acting funny
So now you want me, now you want me
I'm not about it
You lost love, got a real one, now I'm not ready

So boy you better pull up, pull up
I know you're trying to pull the trigger on our love
I see you creeping and I'm fed up, fed up
You made a fool out of me
Yeah you better pull up, pull up
I know you're trying to pull the trigger on our love
Good luck finding someone better, better, better than me

(Ooh I, I see you again) Yeah, yeah
(Ooh I, I see you again) Yeah, yeah
(Ooh I, I see you again) Yeah, yeah
(Ooh I, I see you again) Yeah, yeah

So boy you better pull up, pull up

I know you're trying to pull the trigger on our love
I see you creeping and I'm fed up, fed up
You made a fool out of me
Yeah you better pull up, pull up
I know you're trying to pull the trigger on our love
Good luck finding someone better, better, better than me

Pull up, pull up
I know you're trying to pull the trigger on our love
Good luck finding someone better, better, better than me
