

Side Piece

Mae Muller

You should know better
I only hit you up when there's rain in the weather
No need to make the effort
Only in it for the pleasure
And not for the pressure
Go on and call me savage
Cause I don't really need the extra baggage
You're trying to wife me
But it wouldn't be a happy marriage
Too busy catching flights to Paris
Straight to LA, keep switching address
Cause I'm on my bank roll
You don't get to control
Selling out shows
You ain't on the list though

You're just my piece on the side
You're not special to me
Please don't call me baby
It's so easy to see
You're just my piece on the side
Don't care about your day
Or how your train got delayed
It makes no difference to me
Cause you're
My piece on the side, side, side, side, side
You're my, my piece on the side, side, side, side
Just my, my piece on the

You try your best to make me jealous
You should know that that's not where my head is
No need to know your parents
The only thing I need to know is where your bed is
Don't need to hear about your exes
Or the fact that I'm the only one you're texting
Cause that's not my vibe
You don't like it, there's the exit
Too busy catching flights to Paris
Straight to LA keep switching address
Cause I'm on my bank roll
You don't get to control
Selling out shows
You ain't on the list though

You're just my piece on the side
You're not special to me
Please don't call me baby
It's so easy to see
You're just my piece on the side
Don't care about your day
Or how your train got delayed It makes no difference to me
Cause you're My piece on the side, side, side, side, side
My piece on the side, side, side, side
Just my, my piece on the
Don't take it personal
But when you walk out the door
I ain't missing you, no

I ain't missing you
And I can be, I can be the one
But I don't wanna be I don't wanna be the one, no
One, no
One, no

My piece on the side
You're not special to me
Please don't call me baby
It's so easy to see
You're just my piece on the side
Don't care about your day
Or how your train got delayed
It makes no difference to me
Cause you're My piece on the side, side, side, side, side
My piece on the side, side, side, side
