Mae Muller

It isn't fair
I can't help but stare
Your big blue eyes and your long blonde hair
It is easy to see, the opposite of me
When he looks at you, I feel I can't, can't breathe

This isn't cool
I feel like such a fool
How dare he make me feel this way about you?
I gotta leave 'cause all this jealousy
It ain't fair on you, it ain't fair on me, oh no

And I don't wanna hate you, 'cause it ain't your fault
I think it's time, it's time we talked

Tatiana
The fact that I'm in a state while you look great makes this harder
Tatiana
Tatiana
I've been spiralling 'bout you and him, and it's torture
Tatiana

Who is he to try to come between the two of us?
You can talk to me
You know that he's a fool
The way he's treating you is so unfair, it's so uncool

And I think we know that this is all his fault
I think it's time, it's time we talked

Tatiana
The fact that I'm in a state while you look great makes this harder
Tatiana
Tatiana
I've been spiralling 'bout you and him, and it's torture
Tatiana

He don't deserve you
After all that we've been through
He was always the issue
We'd both be better without

Tatiana
The fact that I'm in a state while you look great makes this harder
Tatiana
Tatiana
I've been spiralling 'bout you and him, and it's torture
