

Mr Right

Mae Stephens

I've been on my own
I've been on my own for awhile
I've been putting off
Giving someone else all my time
Maybe I should go
Maybe I should give it a smile
Grit my teeth and bare it
Oh, it's been a while

Didn't even really wanna go
I'm much better on my own
And now I just wanna go home

'Cause baby you're not the best
Boy, you're missing out on that zest
I don't think I'll be taking that quest
So, I'll be swiping on to the rest
Darling, I'm not one for bad breath
Or that yellow stain on your vest
Yeah, you're really not passing my test
So I'll be swiping on to the rest

Oh, baby!
To the left you go
To the left you go!
To the left you go!
To the left you go!
Oh, baby!
To the left you go!
To the left you go!
Going home tonight, still looking for Mr. Right

I know what I deserve
I deserve the whole damn world
And if you can't provide it
Then I'ma keep on swipin'
Maybe I should find my Romeo
But I'm way too good at being alone

And didn't even really wanna go
Much better on my own
And now I really wanna go home

'Cause baby you're not the best
Boy, you're missing out on that zest
I don't think I'll be taking that quest
So, I'll be swiping on to the rest
Darling, I'm not one for bad breath
Or that yellow stain on your vest
Yeah, you're really not passing my test
So, I'll be swiping on to the rest

Oh, baby!
To the left you go!
To the left you go!
To the left you go!

To the left you go!
Oh, baby!
To the left you go!
To the left you go!
Going home tonight, still looking for Mr. Right

Mr-Mr-Mr. Right
Mr-Mr-Mr. Right
Mr-Mr-Mr. Right
