

Find Your Love

Mägo De Oz

Ohh yeahh
Go find your love and you'll forget
Let it come at your lips
Strong kisses die as soon at the birth
Goes to undrawn and you die
And with the tears you will put the pain to sleep
Where whispers of wind will turn
Your body into a song
Find your love

If you feel alone in loneliness
Put sealing into your home
Crop the windows and think of goodbye
Entertain will bow the way
And you will feel your days with a lot of smiles
With freedom inside your heart
But never ran out its wind

Find your love left all the pain behind
Find your love where is your heart
Take your time to shine and sorrow
And don't let their hands bring you down
No more tears make all your dreams come true

Start to fight is not time to cry
Take your time to shine and sorrow
And let it yourself you'll smile

Let someone else kiss you and open your eyes
(there's someone to believe)
Let the moonlight show you the way to the stars
Tonight is the free mentalize

Find your love don't let the kisses die
Take your time and you move on
Find your love leave all the past behind
Find your love where is your heart
Take your time to shine and sorrow
And don't let their hands bring you down
No more tears make all your dreams come true
Start to fight is not time to cry
Take your time to shine and sorrow
And let it yourself you'll smile

Yeah yeahhh find your love
Find your love... no more tears
Find your love
