

I'm in love with everything that's been left unsaid that's gone down through the centuries beginning
middle and ending dead

I will forget
where I began
I'll lose track
I'll change hands
I'm not vigilant
it's no trouble
it's inevitable

It's so foggy at night always and it's dark all day
all that has been hidden will be shut off one day until then I will attempt whatever tempts me tell me, is that good enough!
there's so much I can't see

I will forget ...

You say in a little while we'll have it all on file my time ain't so vast I can't spend it in the past

I will forget ...
