

Oh Hell

Magdalena Bay

Oh hell
I feel your breathing in my bedroom when I'm by myself
Oh well
I guess you'll rearrange my heart 'til I don't know myself

I see you walkin' from a mile away
I try to change my pace, I'm trying to hide my face
Oh
The way you kill, I cannot complain
You've got me questioning the benefits of love, love, love

You know it's fine but you can't believe
What's in your mind, yeah, it's hard to see
You know it's fine but you can't believe
What's in your mind, yeah, it's hard to see it
You know it's fine but you can't believe
Oh hell

Oh hell
I feel your breathing in my bedroom when I'm by myself
Oh well
I guess you'll rearrange my heart 'til I don't know myself

I see you laughing from a mile away
You take the things I say and turn them into a game
Oh
The way you kill, I cannot complain
You've got me questioning the benefits of love, love, love

Oh and when the sun is turning over
Oh you take a part of my composure
Oh and when you cut me down to size
You've got me questioning the benefits of love

You're taking over
(You know it's fine but you can't believe)
You're taking over
(What's in your mind, yeah, it's hard to see)
You're taking over
(You know it's fine but you can't believe)
You're taking over
(What's in your mind, yeah, it's hard to see it)
You're taking over
(You know it's fine but you can't believe)
Oh hell

Oh hell
I feel your breathing in my bedroom when I'm by myself
Oh well
I guess you'll rearrange my heart, you'll rearrange my heart
Oh hell
I feel your breathing in my bedroom when
I'm by myself
Oh well
Another day, oh hell
