Present

Magdalena Tul

Present, present

In all your thoughts and dreams, I am present
I'm on your mind 24/7, heaven
If you were in my arms then you'd be there

Waiting so patiently for signs of my attention
You've proved that you are someone to depend on Hold on, I believe you care

'Cause whenever I am down, you come
Eager to help me
And all the flowers that you sent in the end
Make me clearly understand

I'm your inspiration, your brand new dimension
(I'm a star you keep moving around)
I'm no cure for sorrow, you're better tomorrow
(If I call you back, then you go 'cause the things I did bad)

I know sometimes my life can make you feel frightened
When slowly I reveal what you've been hiding
Still I can lose myself in you

And when the night's about to fall, my thoughts keep returning
To your smile and to the sound of your voice
To be sure that's no other choice for us

I'm your inspiration, your brand new dimension
(I'm a star you keep moving around)
I'm no cure for sorrow, you're better tomorrow

I'm your inspiration, your brand new dimension
(I'm a star you keep moving around)
I'm no cure for sorrow, you're better tomorrow
(If I call you back, then you go 'cause the things I did bad)

Present in your thoughts, in your dreams
Present in your mind

I'm your inspiration, your brand new dimension
(I'm a star you keep moving around)
I'm no cure for sorrow, you're better tomorrow

I'm your inspiration, your brand new dimension
(I'm a star you keep moving around)
I'm no cure for sorrow, you're better tomorrow
(If I call you back, then you go)
