Maggie Lindemann

Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang

Say you wanna taste, when it comes you can't let it go
Written in our fate, so you don't want the antidote
Take me like a drug, hits you fast, and the comedown is slow, oh-oh

I know I've been on your mind
Know that you don't sleep at night
There's no light behind your eyes, I know (I know)
Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang

Sink your teeth into me
My blood is what you're abusing
Drain me dry so I leave
Guess my love is all consuming

Whispering my name, do you feel me on your skin?
Lit up like a flame, late nights out in Berlin
Take it to the grave, are you forgiven for your sins? (Oh-oh)

I know I've been on your mind
Know that you don't sleep at night
There's no light behind your eyes, I know (I know)
Fang, fang, fang

Sink your teeth into me
My blood is what you're abusing
Drain me dry so I leave
Guess my love is all consuming
Sink your teeth into me
My blood is what you're abusing
Drain me dry so I leave
Guess my love is all consuming

Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang, fang
Fang, fang, fang, fang, fang

Sink your teeth into me
My blood is what you're abusing
Drain me dry so I leave
Guess my love is all consuming

Guess my love is all- (Fang, fang)
Guess my love is all- (Fang, fang)
Guess my love is all consuming (Fang, fang, fang, fang, fang)
