

fate

Maggie Lindemann

Pressure's building up
And these four walls ain't giving up
The answer's been here long enough
I thought time was supposed to make you wiser

Traps in this maze keep you in one place
Buried myself down in this hole, I've lost control

You always say it's okay
That it will turn out fine
Your words, they boil over
They burn me over time
I'm searching for some closure
That I don't think I'll find
Hope's the worst kind of torture
The fate I've been assigned

Ooh-ooh-ah
Ooh-ooh-ah
The fate I've been assigned

I've been moving fast
But somehow I've been getting nowhere lately
I've been too attached
My decisions disappoint me greatly

Traps in this maze keep you in one place
I'm tryna dig out of this hole, I'm miserable

You always say it's okay
That it will turn out fine
Your words, they boil over
They burn me over time
I'm searching for some closure
That I don't think I'll find
Hope's the worst kind of torture
The fate I've been assigned

Ooh-ooh-ah
Ooh-ooh-ah
The fate I've been assigned

The fate I've been assigned
