

Follow The Midnight Sun

Maggie Reilly

Many turned to see the light
Wondering if tomorrow would they know
Rainbow-coloured
Jewel-bright
Glowing through
The softly falling snow
You can call for a way
Turn night to day

And follow the midnight sun
Midnight sun

Ever since the madness fell
Captive of a never-ending daze
Stranded in a timeless spell
And held inside a gilded maze
I wonder how long must it take
Till the sleeping awake

To follow the midnight sun
Midnight sun

You can call for a way
To turn night into day

And follow the midnight sun
Midnight sun
