

Saint

Maggie Rose

I've got a cloud over my head when I wake up
I bet I seem perfect on paper
Couldn't be further away
Feels like there's a crowd of people that I've disappointed
The places that I've been avoiding
Full of hearts I left on the way

I'm only human, I've made my mistakes
It's hard to feel high when you're falling from grace
But I'll keep falling, I'll keep falling

To all of the lovers
I ended up leaving
I've got a restless heart
It changes with the seasons
To all of the futures
I couldn't see me in
I'm watching my halo fade
Maybe I'm not a saint

I'm not a, I'm not a, I'm not a saint
I'm not a, I'm not a, I'm not a saint
I'm not a, I'm not a, I'm not a saint
I'm not a saint

Voices are loud, telling me what I should act like
Maybe I don't wanna act right
I don't care what people say

I'm only human, I've made my mistakes
It's hard to feel high when you're falling from grace
But I'll keep falling, I'll keep falling

To all of the lovers
I ended up leaving
I've got a restless heart
It changes with the seasons
To all of the futures
I couldn't see me in
I'm watching my halo fade
Maybe I'm not a saint

I'm not a, I'm not a, I'm not a saint
I'm not a, I'm not a, I'm not a saint
I'm not a, I'm not a, I'm not a saint
I'm not a saint
