Angels Of Thunder

Magic Kingdom

Lost in the fight, my mission's to kill I don't realise where I am Before my eyes the war has begun Dead bodies are lying in the sand If I want to go home I have to be so cruel I want to see my mother's smile before I go

Angels of thunder are burning my soul Angels of thunder are burning my soul

I'm not afraid, I've been slaying a thousand times But I know that I will be judged Deadly demons arrows are flying in the sky Maybe I'll be the next one If I want to survive I have to be so cruel I want to see my brothers before my soul goes

Angels of thunder are burning my soul Angels of thunder are burning my soul

The warriors of hell appear in the mist They burn all the village down My rage's growing up, they will taste my steel I'll always protect all the mortals I hope that I will be the master of the sword I want to be glorious, I'll become a lord

Angels of thunder are burning my soul Angels of thunder are burning my soul Angels of thunder are burning my soul Angels of thunder are burning my soul
