

Truly Happy

Magic!

All of my life I have struggled
Struggled to fight the devil inside
Spent half my days looking for trouble
Instead of giving into the light

I ain't driven by greed no more
I ain't tryna be seen no more
I just wanna be free of all
The chains in my mind

I just wanna know
What it feels like
What it feels like
To be truly happy
To be truly happy

I need to wanna know
What it feels like
What it feels like
To be truly happy
To be truly happy

I've been the one standing in my way
Missing the life that was made for me

I ain't driven by greed no more
I ain't tryna be seen no more
I just wanna be free of all
The chains in my mind

I just wanna know
What it feels like
What it feels like
To be truly happy
To be truly happy

I need to wanna know
What it feels like
What it feels like
To be truly happy
To be truly happy

I just wanna know
What it feels like
What it feels like
To be truly happy
To be truly happy
