

Young Forever

Magic!

I can hear a voice inside my head
An optimistic younger friend someone i used to know before
Saying that this life I'm living
Isn't worth the life I'm given

I can hear a voice that's in mind
Saying you still got so much time
To do the things you really want
Stuck inside a self-made prison
Break the locks. It's your decision

To never grow up again
To never grow up again
We can be young forever
We can be young forever
