

Pumpkin Eater

Magnolia Park

"He came across a young man who was clearly enjoying a delicious fish that he was eating. And he said uh, 'Young man, why are you eating that fish?' And he says 'Because I love fish.' He says, 'Oh, you love the fish. That's why you took it out of the water and killed and boiled it.' He says 'Don't tell me you loved the fish. You love yourself' "

I was a child
Couldn't see it coming
Thought I was dreaming
When you said you loved me

These picture frames
Depict different people
Well they don't know you
Not like I do
One thing always leads to another
You say you're not like your mother
So why you acting this way?

This house ain't a home
It's built on broken bones and stones
You come and you go
Leaving me in ashes where nothing can grow

You threw me away
Said things never would change
You threw me away

You threw me away
Said things never would change
But you had nothing to say
I'm hoping that too

This house ain't a home
It's built on broken bones and stones
You come and you go
Turning me into an unfortunate soul

"True love is a love of giving"

You threw me away
Said things never would change
You threw me away

You threw me away
Said things never would change
But you had nothing to say
I'm hoping that you
I'm hoping that you have me
I'm hoping that you
I'm hoping that you have me

I only make you
