

Storm Clouds

Magnolia Park

I just wanna go now
Go now
My heart's gotta slow down
Slow down
My head's all caught up
In storm clouds
My heart's gotta slow down
Slow down

Storms in my head
Got me running again
Yah, won't make it far
Cause my beats outta sync
I'm gasping for breath
This monster won't rest
It beats me to death, I fear it'll win and

It's like no one cares
Run away stay home instead
So no one sees me catching breath
While it beats me till I'm dead

I just wanna go now
Go now
My heart's gotta slow down
Slow down
My head's all caught up
In storm clouds
My heart's gotta slow down
Slow down

Slow
Fading out of reach of what I know
Hold me down like gravity enclose
These thoughts before they go
So I can start dissecting them, and understand their growth
I've been trailing back behind myself
Disorderly disposed, in the midst of all this honesty
I'm honestly alone
And the weight of all these words
Sits heavy right inside my throat
Stowed away inside the pockets of my coat

I just wanna go now
Go now
My heart's gotta slow down
Slow down
My head is all caught up
In storm clouds
My heart's gotta slow down
Slow down

I just wanna go now
Go now
(Go now, go now)
My head's gotta slow down
Slow down

(Slow down, slow down)
