

Blue Tango

Magnum

When you look through hollow eyes
And you see the world turn
Walk away from paradise
Watch the crimson flames burn

When you're lost on darkest nights
'Cause there is no rainbow
How to choose your left from right
Like a slow blue tango

Dressed to thrill
But not to kill
Gets you nowhere

Come on and rock my soul
Don't walk the line
Come on and rock my soul
Sweet valentine
No more cryin'
No more tears
Come on and rock my soul
Don't lose your mind

There's a pain you're reeling in
You don't let it show
Well it's not a deadly sin
You won't let it go
Get you down and you can't sleep
Almost every black night
'Cause you're sinking far too deep
Really out of your sight

You decide
You're pacified
Gets you somewhere

Come on and rock my soul
Don't walk the line
Come on and rock my soul
Sweet valentine
No more cryin'
No more tears
Come on and rock my soul
Don't lose your mind

When you talk and feel the pain
Then you're almost lost
And you think it's all in vain
There's nowhere to cross

No more cryin'
No more tears
Come on and rock my soul
Don't lose your mind
Come on and rock my soul
Don't walk the line
Come on and rock my soul

Sweet valentine

No more cryin'

No more tears

Come on and rock my soul

Don't lose your mind
