

It Don't Cost Very Much

Mahalia Jackson

To smile when you're happy, to smile when you're sad
To look pleasing when mistreated
To be calm when you're mad
Oh, be forgiving if someone abuse you
For the good Lord looks for such
Live right each day and smile on your way
It don't cost very much

No it don't cost very much well to place a gentle touch
To give a glass of water to a pilgrim in need of such
Well you may not be an angel and you may not go to church
But the good that you do will come back to you
It don't cost very much

Help the cripple man by the wayside

Help the blind man cross the street
Be careful but kind to strangers
Speak politely to those you meet
Oh, be forgiving if someone abuse you
For the good Lord looks for such
Live right each day and smile on your way
It don't cost very much

No it don't cost very much well to place a gentle touch
To give a glass of water to a pilgrim in need of such
To the blind man, give him glasses
To the cripple man, give him a crutch
For the good that you do will come back to you
It don't cost very much
